

Declares U. S. Has Materials To Annihilate All Human Life

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, March 31 (AP) — Two shuddering pieces of information have been made known to the public in the past few days:

1. That we have an "adequate" supply of atomic bombs.
2. That we have enough radioactive material — if used "effectively" — to wipe human life off the earth.

It was a Congressman — Rep. Keefe, Wisconsin Republican — who let it be known today that we have an "adequate" supply of bombs.

It was Senator McMahon, Connecticut Democrat, who told of the radioactive material in an article this week in Collier's magazine.

Keefe made his statement after listening to David E. Lilienthal, head of the government's Atomic Energy Program, talk to a House committee.

Can Destroy Life
In his Collier's article McMahon said:

"THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA NOW HAS ABOVE GROUND SUFFICIENT RADIO-ACTIVE MATERIAL SO THAT, WERE IT EFFECTIVELY APPLIED, ALL HUMAN LIFE ON THE PLANET WOULD BE ANNIHILATED. WE HAVE ON ORDER VARIOUS MEANS FOR SUCH APPLICATION."

"WE HAVE ON HAND NOW MATERIALS AND MEANS WHEREBY IF WE CHOSE WE COULD EXTINGUISH EVERY LIVING THING IN AN AREA SUCH AS MY OWN NEW ENGLAND."

"WE HAVE ON HAND NOW MATERIALS WHICH, IF USED IN CERTAIN FASHIONS, WOULD DESTROY THE REPRODUCTIVE FACILITIES OF OUR WHOLE NATION, LEAVING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE STERILE AND BARREN, OR CAPABLE OF BIRTHING ONLY MONSTERS, AND SONS AND DAUGHTERS WITH BROKEN BONES."

600 WOMEN AT COOKING SCHOOL TUESDAY NIGHT

Six hundred women filled the Moose auditorium on York street Tuesday night for the Martha Logan cooking school sponsored by Marling's (Weishaar Brothers), Baltimore street, and Swift and company.

Glenn Weishaar opened the school and welcomed the women. He introduced Paul D. Baum, representing Swift and company, Harrisburg, who in turn introduced Miss Danielson, eastern representative and one of 35 "Martha Logans" of the Swift testing kitchens.

Miss Danielson demonstrated new methods of cooking, using "Swift"ing, a new bland lard preparation of Swift and company, and Kelvinator equipment. She prepared and baked an "anniversary" white cake, a chocolate meringue pie, an egg roll, a meat pie and doughnuts.

The foods prepared by Miss Danielson were given away to women present at the conclusion of the cooking school, as well as cans of Swift-thing and a table model radio. Recipe booklets were distributed to all those present.

NEW CHARGES FILED AGAINST RAY H. SIMMONS

Ray H. Simmons, Mechanicsburg R. D., who is scheduled to face death for the hammer slaying of Herbert Humpert, Gardner R. D. farmer, will face charges of prison breach, larceny and burglary if he escapes the electric chair.

That was made certain by Dauphin county authorities Monday when District Attorney Carl B. Shelly of Dauphin county requested a capias on the charges in connection with Simmons' recent escape from the Harrisburg prison. While Simmons is in Dauphin county jail, the formality of a capias was necessary because he is an Adams county prisoner, Shelly said. The district attorney explained that Simmons will probably never be called to face sentence on the charges, because it is impossible for Adams county authorities to turn him over to Dauphin county unless he should by any chance be released. But if he escapes the sentence imposed on him by Adams county, Dauphin will be ready to take over from there.

A capias for the arrest of Edgar Via, Harrisburg, who broke jail with Simmons and who is now serving a sentence in a Virginia prison, was also filed by the Dauphin district attorney so that as soon as Via is released there he will be taken to Harrisburg for trial on a burglary charge, two charges of aiding prisoners to escape, and charges of larceny and burglary in connection with the latest escape of Via from the Dauphin prison.

A brother of Edgar Via, Leonard Via, 21, Harrisburg, was branded a menace to society by President Judge J. Paul Rupp Monday and sent to the Eastern penitentiary for five to 10 years on a charge of burglary.

Held In Dauphin County
Gumby told Judge Shelly, "I wanted to do good for myself and get an innocent man out of trouble." Judge Shelly remanded Gumby to the custody of the Dauphin county sheriff to face prosecution in Harrisburg for robbing two women there early this month, one of whom, Miss Anna Mary DeVerter, 49, a music teacher, jumped from a second floor window to escape him. He will be returned to Carlisle for sentence.

INNOCENT MAN IS FREED BY JUDGE

Arnold Thompson, 45, Carlisle was free today from a two to four-year sentence in the penitentiary imposed last December when another negro confessed attacking a Carlisle woman last August 18 and burglarizing her apartment, the crime that Thompson had been convicted of by a Cumberland county criminal court jury.

Says U. S. Has Adequate Supply Of Atomic Bombs

Washington, March 31 (AP)—The United States has "an adequate supply" of atom bombs and is steadily making more, Congress members said today.

They reported that this information came from David E. Lilienthal, atomic energy commission chairman, during secret testimony before the House appropriations committee on February 28.

On the strength of Lilienthal's statements, the committee yesterday recommended an additional $150,000,000 for the commission's work, the full amount asked.

While committee members were reluctant to discuss Lilienthal's testimony, they agreed privately with the statement of Rep. Keefe (R-Wis.) that "we have an adequate supply of bombs already manufactured."

They said they were not given any exact numbers and declined to say where the bombs are stored and how big they are.

"The conclusion I drew from the testimony," Keefe said in an interview, "is that we are proceeding rapidly with development of the en-

RED CROSS DRIVE IS EXTENDED IN ADAMS COUNTY

With reports far from complete and with nearly $6,000 needed to reach the chapter goal, Attorney Donald M. Swope, finance campaign chairman, today formally extended the Red Cross fund drive, originally scheduled to end today.

The distinction of being the first section of Adams county to go over the top with its Red Cross fund drive goes to East Berlin, Campaign Chairman Donald M. Swope revealed Tuesday evening in a report to the county chapter's board of directors on the progress of the drive for $14,820.

The canvass in East Berlin was headed by Mrs. Blanche Mummert, a school teacher, he said.

Urged To Finish Job

East Berlin not only topped 1947 contributions but went over the increased 1948 quota, Mr. Swope stated. Last year the East Berlin section raised $394. The quota in the current drive was $470 and Mrs. Mummert has sent in $643.96.

Districts 1, 2 and 7 also have practically completed their campaign but no other district has yet reached its quota. Mr. Swope said an "up-to-the-minute" report on contributions brought in to the chapter headquarters here showed $8,518.93.

District chairmen are being urged to complete their solicitations as quickly as possible and to make every effort to reach their assigned quotas so that the county may meet its goal which is more than $2,000 above the 1947 quota.

Disasters Costly

Miss Margaret McMillan, executive secretary, said Tuesday evening that 600 chapters already have met their drive goals and that about three-fifths of the national fund already has been raised. The increased quotas for the Red Cross drive this year are due largely to greatly increased expenditures for disaster relief. Since January 1 the Red Cross has served areas in 13 states, struck by disaster in the form of floods, fires, explosions or tornadoes.

Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, chapter chairman, praised Mr. Swope for having done a "splendid job" in organizing the fund campaign throughout the county.

TO MAKE SHOES IN NEW BUILDING

A new two-story concrete block building now under construction in the alley north of the first block of East Middle street will be occupied upon completion, expected early in April, by the Blosser Shoe and Bootie company of Gettysburg.

The building is being erected by Edwin S. Longanecker, East Middle street, and will be leased to the shoe company, which manufactures booties for infants up to eight months of age. David C. Blosser, III, is proprietor of the company. The new building is 35 by 40 feet, and its two floor will provide between 2,000 and 2,500 of floor space.

Mr. Blosser, whose father, David C. Blosser, Jr., operates the New Oxford Baby Shoe company in a building at the rear of the second block on East Middle street, has been making baby shoes for the last 18 months at 143 Baltimore street, where he resides. Most of the work, however, is work that has been sent out to be done by women employees in their own homes.

New machinery will be installed in the new building and up to 40 persons can be employed. Mr. Blosser plans to expand his business gradually, and eliminate the home work.

Mr. Blosser served in the U. S. Navy for 18 months and was discharged in June, 1946. He started making Blosser booties, which are sold to jobbers and retailers, shortly after leaving the service.

SISTER MIRIAM, CATHOLIC POET, TALKS TO CLUB

"God visits us often, but most of the time we are not at home," Sister Miriam, head of the English department at Misericordia college, Philadelphia, and one of America's leading Catholic poets, told the Mothers' club of St. Francis Xavier school Tuesday evening at a meeting in the social rooms of the school.

Pointing out that "peace comes from within ourselves, not from the world outside, it comes from God and not from man," Sister Miriam asserted that "we are very materialistic and as a result many of us are very frustrated. We Americans need to spend time in contemplation. We grope for peace, yet peace is within our grasp if we realize that the Holy Spirit can dwell within us. Man has become a pragmatist, dispensing with God."

5 BOARDS FAVOR SCHOOL MERGER AT NEW OXFORD

Establishment of a joint school set-up among districts in the New Oxford area seemed assured following a meeting of eight school boards at the New Oxford public school Tuesday night.

Members of five boards indicated their interest in establishing a joint organization with New Oxford as the nucleus, while three other boards were unable to state "which way the wind is blowing" at the present time.

The boards expressing opinions most favorable to the jointure were New Oxford, and Hamilton, Oxford, Straban and Mt. Pleasant townships. Abbottstown, Berwick and Conewago were unable to give more than qualified opinions.

All of the boards will report back at a meeting in New Oxford April 20 and an additional board, McSherrytown, will be invited to attend that session.

The boards were asked to either report with a resolution bringing them into a jointure at the April 20 meeting, or to report what decision they had made concerning affiliation in some other jointure in the area.

Express Opinions

The meeting was one of a number being conducted throughout the county to determine the opinion of the patrons and school board members concerning the enlarged school attendance area plan which must be presented to the state by the county school board this summer.

POLICE GUARD CURB PICKETS

New York, March 31 (AP)—Police stood shoulder to shoulder at the entrance to the New York Stock Exchange today to prevent any recurrence of yesterday's violence in the financial workers' strike.

Members of the striking AFL Financial Employees Union and of the AFL Seamen's Union, who joined them on the picket line, were on hand long before the 10 a. m. hour of opening.

The stock and curb exchanges began business on the dot of 10 o'clock as they had on the previous two days of the strike.

Brokers reported operations about normal but there was such a rush of overnight transactions the ticker tape fell behind for a brief period during the first few minutes of trading.

The same three pickets who stood before the Exchange's main entrance at 11 Wall street when the battling began yesterday walked in a tight circle in front of the doorway today.

Six police officers stood a few feet away.

The 1,000 to 1,500 pickets were noisy but orderly as they marched back and forth in adjacent areas.

Both the stock and curb exchanges were struck, but picket activity outside the curb was quiet. Brokers' offices were not affected by the strike.

The pickets concentrated their attention on the 11 Wall street entrance to the stock exchange today and lines in other areas were small.

Nanking, March 31 (AP)—China's military command announced today a policy of defending only areas of great importance and necessity to conserve strength and mobility. Washington, March 31 (AP)—The government soon may take the "for munitions plants."

The War Assets Administration is expecting orders this week to withdraw from the surplus market a new group of powder and ordnance works, government officials reported privately today. Ten were withdrawn on March 20.

In addition, WAA now is surveying its list of army camps, naval stations and air fields to be ready to "freeze" their disposal in case the armed forces want to put them back in service.

This survey was started after President Truman asked Congress for Universal Military Training and a temporary draft which would put thousands of new trainees in service.

A WAA spokesman said the agency could halt "within 24 hours" the process of selling and dismantling the military posts. More than 150 have been declared surplus. One-third of these had been disposed of by mid-1947 and others have been partly torn down to salvage housing materials.

The munitions board is expected to send new stop-orders "later this week" suspending the sale of ordnance plants, it was learned. The board headed by Thomas J. Hargrave, plans the purchase of arms and supplies for the army, navy and air force.

ITU Reverses Its Bargaining Policy

Washington, March 31 (AP)—The International Typographical Union has officially reversed its bargaining policy to obey a federal court order.

New instructions to ITU local unions were completed last night. They are expected to be mailed from the union's Indianapolis headquarters today or tomorrow.

The 850 local unions are told to offer full-year contracts to the nation's newspaper publishers and print shop.

These contracts would allow the hiring of non-union printers who pass "competency" tests.

Government lawyers discussed the new instructions with a union lawyer, Henry Kaiser, for three and a half hours here last night and finally pronounced them in compliance with the injunction.

We know she's happy there—

NORRISTOWN HI DOWNS YORK IN EASTERN FINAL

Philadelphia, March 31 (AP)—Two newcomers to the finals of the PIAA class A basketball championship will meet for the title at the Palestra Saturday.

Ford City, best of the western fives, and Norristown, top among the eastern quintets, qualified for the championship round with victories last night. Ford City turned back Westinghouse, the city of Pittsburg champions, 37-29 and Norristown edged York 40-36.

Eddie Halas, Ford City center, paced the WPAL champions with 19 points as they pulled away in the third quarter after a defensive first half which ended all square at 13-13.

John Gurski turned in a fine job of checking Westinghouse's Flo Cimador, who topped the losers with 11 tallies.

George Williams, lanky forward, was the big gun in Norristown's attack. He poured 18 of his team's first 21 points through the hoop. He was checked in the second half but Doc Cuono came through with four field goals in as many minutes and ended up with 13 points. Norristown led at the half 17-14 with 16 of the points being scored by Williams.

In contrast to the class A finals the Lancaster Friday will have a familiar picture.

Irwin qualified to defend its title by whipping Kane 56-38 at Farrell last night. The champs will meet Bridgeport, 40-38 winner over Swoyerville at Wayne Monday night.

New York, March 31 (AP)—Next season the nation's high schools will play their football on the college pattern.

A uniform set of playing rules was adopted here this week by a special committee representing both the college and high school organizations.

Whereas in the past there have been as many as 150 differences in the two codes, the revised standards reduce these differences to half a dozen, none important. The main differences remaining deal with length of quarters and substitutions.

New York, March 31 (AP)—Chicago's Stags go after their second straight playoff victory in the basketball Association of America tonight in Boston.

If they win the Stags will be the first club to enter the semi-final round of the complicated playoff system. If they lose they will meet the Celtics again Friday night in Boston. The Stags ended the season in a three way tie for second in the western division of the league. After a special series, they were awarded third place.

Allentown, Pa., March 31 (AP)—The Johnstown Catholic high school basketball team meets Allentown Central Catholic high tonight for the Pennsylvania Catholic scholastic court championship.

Allentown Central Catholic, seeking its third state title, defeated La Salle high of Philadelphia last week to win the Eastern Regional crown. Johnstown, western regional titlist, won 20 out of 22 games played this season.

Colorado Springs, Colo., March 31 (AP)—Nearly all of the U. S. Olympic skaters are here for the National Figure Skating Championships which opened a four-day stand today in the Broadmoor ice palace.

The presence of such stars as Dick Button, Gretchen Merrill, Johnny Lettergarver, Helen Uhl and Yvonne Sherman promised a good show for the first big skating event ever held in this part of the country.

BARONS' STREAK BROKEN BY REDS

(By The Associated Press)
The Cleveland Barons' unprecedented success streak—30 games without a setback—came to an abrupt end last night and the Barons were prevented temporarily from joining the Buffalo Bisons in the finals of the American Hockey league Calder cup playoffs.

Undefeated since January 24, Cleveland bowed to the aroused Providence Rhode Island Reds in Providence, 8-3, in the game the Ohioans needed to clinch series "A."

As it is, the Barons lead, three games to one, and will try to ice the series again Thursday night at Cleveland.

Meanwhile, the Buffalo Bisons, building up a neat little winning streak of their own, moved into the final round with a 6-2 victory over the New Haven Ramblers at New Haven.

That makes four straight for the Buffalo Bumps in the playoffs. First they bumped Hershey twice in a row and then followed a one-two punch on New Haven in the two best-of-three series.

Buffalo, which finished the season in third place in the Western Division, will play the Cleveland-Providence winner for the Calder cup.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 31 (AP) — From now until the 15th of May, a lot of baseball managers and club owners will be nursing a headache spelled "B O N U S" . . . That is to say they're just discovering what the bonus rule means . . . The rule says that a player who has received more than a certain amount in bonuses for signing can't be optioned out to the minors, without waivers, once he is brought up to the big leagues . . . The object, apparently, was to curb the custom of handing out huge amounts to youngsters by clubs which happened to be in the chips. All it accomplished was to keep these youngsters, many of whom need seasoning, sitting on benches in major league parks . . . Clark Griffith already has voiced the suspicion that some clubs have been covering up bonus players and it looks like a safe bet there'll be more of that unless the rule is repealed.

THE RIGHT SLANT
Between halves of one of the Olympic trial basketball games the other night, members of the Olympic fencing team put on an exhibition with electrical spees . . . These swords have a device which flashes a light and sounds a buzzer when an opponent is touched with the tip . . . At one juncture there was a double touch and both gadgets sounded off . . . The basketball fans caught on immediately. From all sides came a chorus: "Tilt."

HARD LUCK TALES
Burt Shipley, U. of Maryland baseball coach, is moaning the loss for the season of his best pitcher, Boots Panella. Boots tore a knee cartilage roller skating . . . Chuck Drzenovich, Penn State blocking back, turned out for boxing this winter for the first time and won the eastern heavyweight title without even being bruised by an opponent's glove . . . Then he went back for spring football practice and acquired a beautiful "mouse" under his eye when he was hit during the first scrimmage . . .

END OF THE LINE
Ace Hudkins, a great middleweight fighter of some 20 years ago, and his brothers are in the business of renting horses to movie studios. Their headquarters are in Burbank, Calif. . . . A New Jersey syndicate is ready to spend $100,000 for an outstanding sire to help improve the breeding of race horses in the Garden State . . . When you ask the Phillies Ben Chapman about Howard Schultz, last year's first-sacker, Ben looks blank and asks: "You mean that basketball player?"

Scranton, Pa., March 31 (AP)—U. S. Attorney Arthur A. Maguire has filed a 25-count criminal information charging Jonas P. Donn timer, of Ono, Lebanon county, with violating the Interstate Commerce regulations. Maguire said yesterday Donn timer is charged with transporting material in interstate commerce without proper certification.

WILDCATS AND OILERS IN BIG TEST TONIGHT

By MURRAY ROSE

New York, March 31 (AP)—Kentucky matches its youth and speed against the height and experience of the Phillips Oilers tonight in the finals of the Olympic basketball tryouts.

A capacity crowd of about 18,400 is expected to jam Madison Square Garden to witness the settlement of basketball's burning question: "can a great college basketball team beat the nation's best AAU club?"

There's no doubt about the qualifications of each quintet. The Kentucky Wildcats (36-2), breezed to the NCAA title and won its first two tryout tests handily.

Phillips (61-3) captured its fifth straight AAU crown and swept its two trials here just as easily.

Kentucky will start its usual five of Ralph Beard (5-10½), Ken Rollins (6 feet), Alex Groza (6-7), Cliff Barker (6½), and Wallace (Wah Wah) Jones, (6-4). This quintet averages close to 22 years in age and 6-2 in height.

Oilers Have Height
Against this fleet combination, the Oilers are expected to pit R. C. Pitts (6-4), Jesse Renick (6-2½), Bob Kurland (7 feet), Lew Beck (5-10), and Gordon Carpenter (6-7). That team averages around 27 in age and 6-5 in height. Kentucky is five years younger—on the average—and the Oilers have a three-inch advantage in height.

Kentucky's first five is almost a cliché to make the 14-man Olympic team intact. Which five Oilers will be named to the squad won't be known until after tonight's twin bill. Baylor and the Denver Nuggets meet in the consolation opener at 8 p. m. (EST).

Off their performances to date, three Oilers, Kurland, Carpenter and Renick appear to be first choices with Beck, Tucker, Pitts and Belsler in the contention for the other two spots.

The Olympic basketball committee, headed by Lou Wilke of Denver, will pick the squad. The four other places will go to members of other teams who participated in the trials.

Right now the foremost candidates from the defeated bunch are Ray Lipcomb, Vince Boryla, and Jim Darden from the Nuggets; Les O'Gara and Don Barksdale from Oakland Bittners; Jack Robinson and James Owens from Baylor; and Adolph Schayes and Ray Lamp from New York U.

Training
Camp Briefs
New York, March 31 (AP)—Murry Dickson of the St. Louis Cardinals, hurled the second no-run, no-hit nine-inning spring exhibition game in baseball history yesterday. The performance showed Manager Eddie Dyer he was justified in standing by the little righthander last year when he couldn't win for losing.

The Cardinals, and Dickson in particular, had tough luck all through the 1947 season. He wound up with 13 victories and 16 losses. The fans were down on him, but Dyer kept rushing him into vital contests despite the boos from the crowd.

The late Cy Blanton of the Pittsburgh Pirates pitched the only other spring no hitter, according to the sketchy exhibition records. He blanked the Cleveland Indians without a blow in New Orleans, April 9, 1939.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 31 (AP)—Bill McCahan, the Philadelphia Athletics' 1947 no-hit pitcher, will try his arm against Toronto today. It will be his first appearance of the spring season. He's been bothered with a sore shoulder.

El Centro, Calif., March 31 (AP)—The New York Giants' home run attack seems to be in form and the Pittsburgh Pirates ought to know it. The Giants have whipped the Pirates two straight days on four baggers. The Pirates' Ralph Kiner, 1947 home run king, also is finding his eye. He hit his second of the season yesterday.

Clearwater, Fla., March 31 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, riding a five-game winning streak, meet the Philadelphia Phillies here again today. The Reds swamped the Phils, 11 to 0, yesterday.

Easton, Pa., March 31 (AP)—The Lafayette college baseball team could use a medical corps of its own. The team's practice session yesterday resulted in this toll: First Baseman Bill Ash broke a bone in his right ankle. Infielder Eddie Snyder crashed into a wall trying to snare a fly ball and lost some teeth. Outfielder Jack Milne slid into a base and sprained his ankle.

RACING STABLE HAS AGED NAGS

Arcadia, Calif., March 31 (AP)—Harness horsemen insist years mean nothing in their sport. They even brag about the matter.

But W. O. Reynolds, an owner and trainer, practically overdoes the thing.

He has a stable of 14 pacers and trotters, all ready to race in the Grand Circuit meeting starting at Santa Anita Friday, and the average age of his horses is 12 years. And Mr. Reynolds is 86.

The harness people say a horse's age is equal to that of a human being three times as old. That would make the Reynolds' array an average of 36. One of his favorite pacers, C. A. Harrison by name, is 18, or a theoretical 54.

C. A., as he is called, will be remembered for his winning ways at Hollywood Park last year. His 1947 record shows that he finished first or second in 13 trips to the track, which is good racing, regardless of age.

Reynolds has another 18-year-old, Frank Watts McKinney, a trotter, which was in the money six times in 16 starts, and Golden State, aged 14, paced in the money five times in 10 trips.

Wallace Attacks Stop Russia Policy

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace came to town and fired both barrels at the government's "stop Russia" policy.

But there is no sign today that he switched any votes in Congress on the issues of a draft and universal military training to strengthen the armed forces.

In fact, Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Arm Services committee remarked:

"It is evident Congress will pass some form of Selective Service and may adopt a universal military training program."

Crowds that gathered at the church of St. Francis de Sales for the services and at the cemetery, Pve Pachaise, mourned sincerely for her whom they loved so well, and they brought in profusion the tribute of flowers she requested.

Bernhardt's body rested in the rosewood casket which she ordered 30 years ago. On the breast of her white satin dress was pinned the cross of the Legion of Honor while about her neck was the gold locket containing the likeness of her son, Maurice.

Today's Talk

CURIOSITY

Montaigne retired to his "castle" that he might devote the rest of his life to writing, to the examination of him, and "to put on paper not what he did, but what he was." His curiosity was aroused, as to the thinking and action of men, but he sought first to learn about himself, which he discussed in the frankest manner of anyone who has ever put his thoughts honestly into a book.

On one of the beams in his library were these words: "I stop—I remain quiet in the balance—I take for my guide the ways of the world and the experiences of the senses."

Curiosity begins at the moment when a child's intelligence starts. It wants to know. It is forever asking questions. Why? Who? When? And this curiosity to find out and to learn, follows us all throughout life—and happily so, for that is the way we become informed.

Whenever I read a genuinely fine, or great book I immediately search out for all the information that I can locate about the writer. That refreshes the book for me. It makes it more intimate and human. When I read Norman Douglas's great book "South Wind" I hunted until I found a little book in which he told how he happened to write it. Then I read George Gissing's fine book "By the Ionian Sea," because that was a favorite with Douglas, and both books were about Italy—one about the mainland, and one about the famous island of Capri, about which Dr. Munthe wrote so beautifully. In fact the reading of "South Wind" drove me back to read "The Story of San Michele," again To a lover of literature, curiosity is forever breaking in.

It was Franklin's curiosity that led him into his experiments with electricity, as it is indeed with all inventions and investigators. When one's curiosity withers, the zest for life and its thrills begins to die. Curiosity often gets us into trouble, but we always learn a lesson by it. Curiosity stimulates the imagination, and this imagination spreads out in many a direction, leading to many a discovery. Newton was the discoverer of the theory of gravitation. There is a story that it came about that he was taking a nap under a tree and got to thinking the matter over, and so threw an apple into the air and it came down. That started it, but undoubtedly it was his curiosity that initiated it.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Without Money or Price."

FISHERMAN'S LUCK

Ninety miles out
And ninety miles back;
Jostled about,
Rickety-rack!
Two fishes small
At the bait struck,
That's what they call:
"Fisherman's luck."

Fishing near by
Scorned for the day,
Wanting to try
Spots far away,
Jolt, jar and lurch,
Riding a truck!
Two little perch—
"Fisherman's luck."

Hear the guide say,
After being paid:
"Just yesterday
Catches were made,
Two for the cats,
All that we 'uk'!
Sorry, but that's
"Fisherman's luck!"

Fire Company in Record Run: Fire, caused by an overheated chimney, completely destroyed the house Wednesday afternoon on a farm near McKnightstown owned by H. E. Riddlemoser, and tenanted by Edward Kroushower and family.

When word was sent to the Gettysburg fire company, the new La France engine sped to the scene and 38 minutes after the fire was discovered in the house, was pouring water on the flames.

The flames had spread too rapidly to save any of the household effects or clothing.

Efforts of the firemen were directed toward saving other buildings and the straw stack.

Labor Trouble May Hit Jamaica Opening

New York, March 31 (AP)—The

New York racing season is scheduled to begin tomorrow at Jamaica, but labor trouble may postpone it. Grooms and exercise boys announced they would strike against some 130 horse owners and trainers at 6 a. m. tomorrow unless they signed an agreement with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (AFL).

The union said it believed such a walkout would halt racing. However, Luke H. O'Brien, general manager of Jamaica, declared: "We will operate." The owners and trainers withheld comment.

The union is seeking individual contracts with the owners and trainers involved. These would call for improved working conditions and a minimum rate of pay slightly higher than now in effect at some stables.

EASTERN PENNA. MILK PRICE LOW

Harrisburg, March 31 (AP)—Eastern Pennsylvania soon will boast the lowest comparable milk prices in the east, the state Milk Control Commission asserted today.

The commission said that new general orders going into effect tomorrow in seven eastern Pennsylvania milk marketing areas, established consumer prices lower than similar cities and districts anywhere in the east.

A feature of the new order is a blanket drop of one cent a quart in all seven areas effective May 1 and continuing through June.

The order at the same time fixes prices at current levels of 20.5 a quart in the Philadelphia, Philadelphia suburban, Reading and Allentown marketing areas, and 20 cents for Lancaster, York and Harrisburg districts.

Comparisons of these levels based on reports of the U. S. Agriculture department, show that consumers living in marketing areas outside of Pennsylvania are paying an average of 21.8 cents per quart for Grade B milk. The actual range runs from 20 cents a quart in Baltimore area to 22.5 in New Jersey and 23.5 in New York.

Prices paid by consumers for Grade B milk in other cities and milk marketing areas, include: New York 23.5; Newark 22.5; Trenton 22.5; Atlantic City 21.5; Albany 22; Rochester 22; Charlestown, W. Va. 22; Cincinnati 22; Boston 22; Birmingham 22; Buffalo 21; Providence, R. I., 21; District of Columbia, 21.

New Oxford

New Oxford.—Miss Mary Lou Markel, a junior at the Indiana State Teachers' college, has been spending the Easter recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Markel.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Felix were godparents recently when their nephew, Philip Anthony Felix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Felix, McSherrytown, was christened at the Catholic church there by the Rev. Anthony J. McGinley.

The local Lions club had its regular bi-monthly meeting with a meal at the Cross Keys Diner east of town last Wednesday evening.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Weaver, York, who was born March 14, has been named Kenneth David. He is the sixth child of the couple and a paternal grandson of Mrs. Corrine Weaver, here. The Weavers are preparing to move from York shortly.

Children of the local parochial school returned Tuesday morning to their classes which had not been in session since Wednesday afternoon because of the Easter vacation.

Miss Janet Kehr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kehr, near town, a freshman at Shippensburg State Teachers' college, has been spending the Easter recess at her parents' home.

Earl L. McHale has recovered from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Robert Sleighter are moving this week from York to the newly prepared apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Keefe.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Kirkpatrick, who were married about two weeks ago, are now at home in their apartment in the building of Dr. Kirkpatrick's office. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is the former Miss Jeanne Casteel, Alabama, daughter of Col. and Mrs. James A. Casteel, stationed at present in Korea.

"The Resurrection," a painting by Enders, was studied Easter Sunday at 6 a. m. at St. Paul's Reformed church as a part of the dawn service. The study was made by the use of a slide, and each person present was given a small copy of this picture. A study of "The Last Supper" was given in the same way there during the past week. Similar studies of religious pictures were made during last year's Lenten services at the church of which the Rev. Archie C. Rohrbach is pastor.

Helpful Tips For Home Builders

INTERIOR WALL COLORS AFFECT FAMILY MOODS

The colors that surround you affect your every-day moods. You can use color to make small rooms appear larger and large rooms smaller. With the trend toward less clutter and less crowded furniture arrangement, color enables you to fill your rooms to avoid a barren, sparsely-furnished appearance.

Subtle off-shades, rather than pure primary red, blue and yellow, are most satisfying, say interior designers. With the growing use of light-colored woods and fabrics in furniture, darker wall tones are needed to bring furniture into focus.

Color Complements
Combinations like these have been successfully used with blond wood furnishings: burnt orange or dark gray with white trim; Kelly green with matching trim on walls and off-white or canary yellow ceilings. Maple furniture is effectively set off with almost any shade of blue or yellow. If your furniture is dark mahogany or oak, medium greens or deeper shades of blue provide an effective setting. Orange-yellow, chartreuse or a rich beige also combine well with heavy furniture. Highly-figured wallpapers on one wall are often used to accent a room's furnishings. A bright yellow should not be used behind a gold-colored chair. On the other hand, the yellow will pleasantly accent a green chair.

Before deciding on your wall color scheme, get from your paint or wallpaper dealer generous swatches, at least two feet square, of the colors and patterns you think you want. Hold these swatches against each of the four walls behind the furniture you expect to place there, to determine which color complements the furniture best. And don't forget to try the swatches under artificial light.

Abbottstown

Abbottstown.—Mr. and Mrs. Grove Haines entertained about 75 guests on Monday evening at the home of Mr. Haines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Haines, in celebration of his parents' golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Haines were married by the Rev. P. W. Helmer, their pastor of Emmanuel Reformed church. Mrs. Haines before marriage was Miss Helen Wolf, daughter of the late George and Margaret (Culp) Wolf. They have two children living, Prof. George Haines and Prof. Grove Haines. Prof. George Haines is teaching history at the University of Indiana and lives in Bloomington. He and his family were unable to be here. Prof. George Haines is the author of several history books and lives in Chevy Chase, Md. There are two grandchildren.

The couple received many gifts and a buffet luncheon was served. Mr. Haines is a retired cigarmaker. Both are enjoying fairly good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove Haines and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Zeigler returned Sunday from a 10-day trip to Houston, Texas.

Richard Kroft is confined to his home due to bronchial pneumonia.

The Ladies' aid of Emmanuel Reformed church will hold a country ham and sauerkraut supper in the social room of the church on Saturday, April 3.

George S. Nagle, Northport, L. I., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. E. Grace Nagle.

Dr. David I. Thompson is attending to his practice again after being confined to bed at his home for a week due to illness.

Durability Of Oak Floors Economical

The economy of using durable materials in a home is clearly evident in the case of such items as flooring, according to builders. Oak flooring, the kind employed in most well constructed homes, ordinarily lasts the life of a building without requiring major repairs. In many instances oak floors salvaged from an old, razed structure have been installed in a new building and have given many more years of efficient service. If discolored by neglect, they usually can be restored to their original beauty.

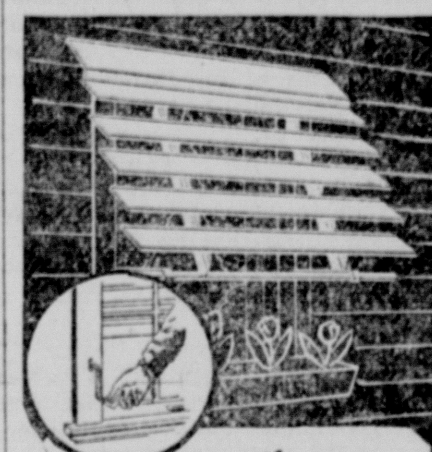

Screens In Need Of Spring Attention

Those window and door screens which you stored last fall need cleaning, paint and minor repairs now. They should be thoroughly brushed with kerosene to loosen the winter accumulation of dirt and grease. When the kerosene evaporates, the dirt can be washed out with a strong spray from the garden hose.

Best way to paint screens is to spray them. The paint mixture should be very thin so the mesh will not be clogged. A paint containing zinc dust reduces corrosion and prevents stains on the house siding.

Weak or split frames can be easily repaired by reinforcing the corners with right-angled metal brackets obtainable in any hardware or 10-cent store. They should be put on with screws, not nails or tacks.

Small holes can be patched with ready-made squares which come with strands of wire ready to bend into place through the old screen mesh.

HOUSE GROUP OKAYS FUNDS

Washington, March 31 (AP)—New funds for atomic weapons and research for military road work in Alaska, and for the word war with Russia were okayed Tuesday by the House Appropriations committee.

It also approved new grants for relief work in Army-occupied countries and for Veterans' administration personnel.

The committee recommended a $332,407,782 bill to meet shortages in funds previously voted for various agencies for the year ending June 30. The bill is scheduled to come before the House for a vote tomorrow or Thursday.

The total is $86,311,478 below the amount President Truman had asked. Most of the cuts were in funds sought for the Maritime commission, the Postoffice department and the Air Force Clothing budget.

In addition, the committee cancelled $200,345,000 in money previously appropriated for the Army, mostly for the finance service. The Army itself had proposed a $150,000,000 cancellation.

Not a penny was cut from the $150,000,000 asked by the Atomic Energy commission, all of it in contract

Timely And Modern Suggestions Presented By Builders And Contractors

SPRING TO SEE HEAVY VOLUME OF REPAIR WORK

The volume of home repair, remodeling and improvement is expected to be greater this spring than any year in the past, it is indicated in surveys made by the Construction Research Bureau of New York, clearing house for building information.

Material shortages have been largely overcome since last year; plenty of labor is available; and most home-owners, taking the word of building industry economists that costs cannot be expected to decline to any extent, have concluded not to postpone needed work.

Improvements Add Value
Countless relatively inexpensive improvements can be made in any house that will add considerably to its value and provide more gracious, comfortable living.

These may include painting, more storage space, an extra bath or lavatory, a finished attic or basement, insulation, interior decoration, new steps, a new porch, removal of partitions to create larger rooms, and so on. The list is limitless.

One of the most important home improvement jobs from an economy and comfort standpoint is that of insulation. It costs virtually nothing, according to the Construction Research Bureau, because it is usually paid for within three or four years by fuel savings. In addition, full-thickness insulation in walls and roof area makes the average home as much as 15 degrees cooler in summer.

Financing Made Easy
Any home can be quickly insulated by blowing walls and other hard-to-get-at spaces full of mineral wool. Batts or blankets of this naturally fireproof material are applied where there is room for a man to work, such as in unfinished attics, and the blowing process is not used in such areas.

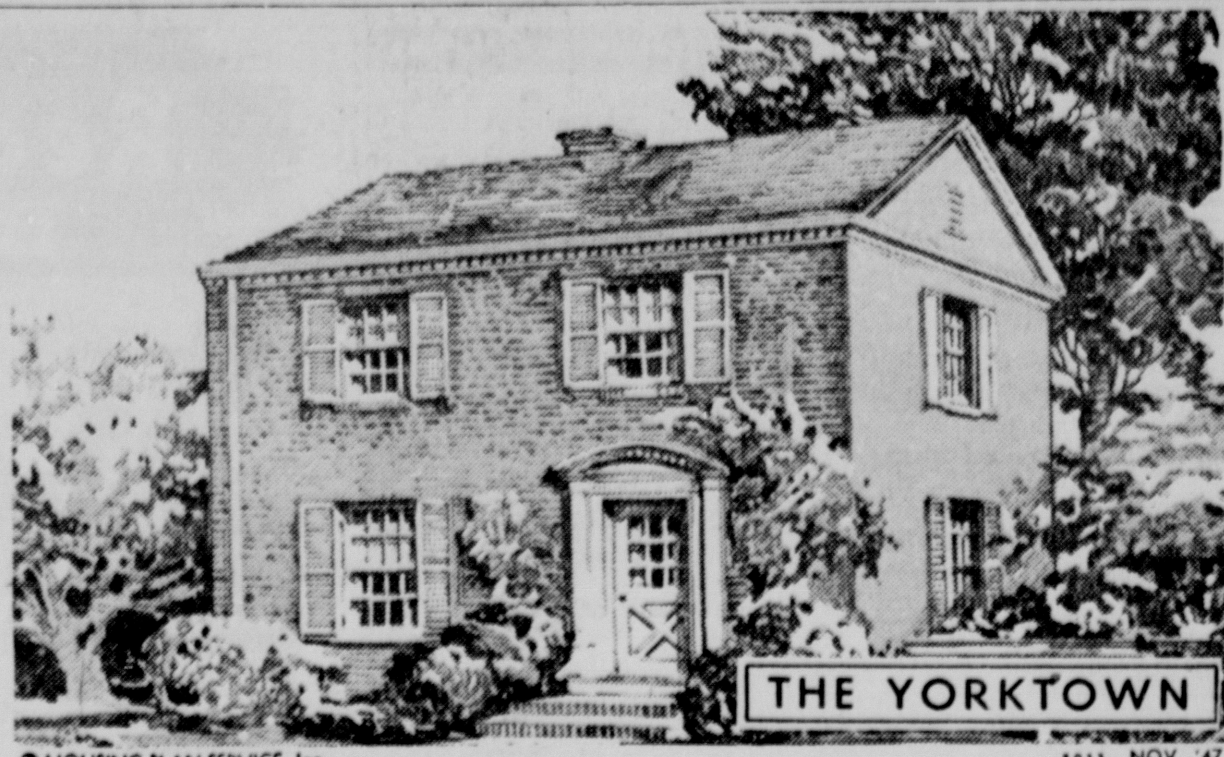

Lack of capital need not deter home improvement plans, the Bureau pointed out. No matter how large or small the job, the cost generally can be financed at low interest rates by FHA-insured home modernization loans. These are obtainable through almost any building contractor or bank and are repaid in small monthly sums over a three-year period.

Hides Money, Loses Pants And Pays Fine

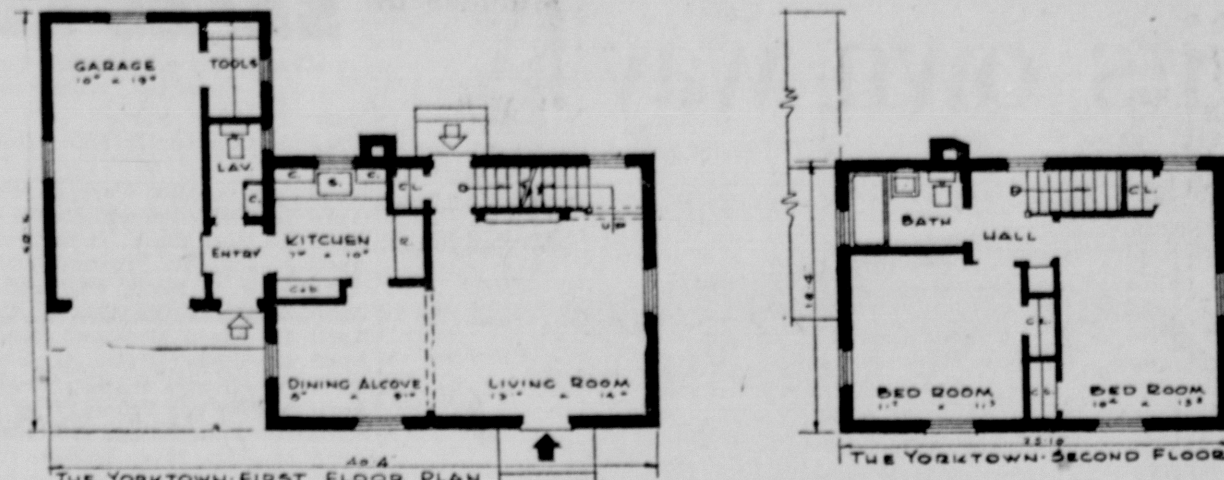

Baltimore, March 31 (AP)—A Baltimore man tucked three dollars in his shoe as a precaution against robbers, but it was the central police court that profited by his prudence.

The robbers who took his pants—wallet and all—missed the three dollars in the shoe.
But magistrate James R. Cadden relieved him of $2.45 of it in the form of a disorderly conduct fine, after he was found on a city street corner minus the stolen pants.
Anyway, his foresight saved him 55 cents.

The phrase, "the Great White Way," as a synonym for Broadway, is supposed to have been coined in 1901 by O. J. Gude, an advertising man.

HOLLOW WALLS ARE FIRE HAZARD

Every day 1,000 American homes are damaged by fire and many are completely destroyed because the flames cannot be confined within the area where they start.

Hollow walls are particularly dangerous because they act as flues and permit fire to spread throughout the house in a few minutes.

Where fire-barriers are lacking, this deficiency can be corrected by blowing the walls full of fire-proof mineral wool. Many building code administrators accept this as compliance with laws requiring fire-retardant construction, since government tests show that walls filled with mineral wool will stop the passage of fire for one hour or more.

The plan of The Yorktown was adapted by Structural Clay Products Institute from the nationally famous plan for the ideal, small, two story house developed by The National Small Homes Demonstration.

Almost the entire first floor area is given over to living room, which includes a pleasant alcove for dining. The result is a grand "family room" 24 feet long. The stairs rise out of the back of this room and lead to two splendid bedrooms, with abundant closets and a conveniently located bath.

The plans provide for a full basement and also show how a garage may be attractively attached to the house.

The plans were drawn to conform to the standards of FHA and also to those of The National Adequate Wiring Bureau with respect to the electrical layout. Architect's detailed blueprints cost $7.50 per set and may be obtained from Housing Plans Service—140 Nassau Street, New York 7, N. Y.

CONDEMNATION OF COMMUNISM ON BOGOTA LIST

By LESLIE HIGLEY

Bogota, Colombia, March 31 (AP)—Diplomats said today the 21-nation Pan American conference is almost certain to spell out a strong condemnation of Communist infiltration in the western world.

This attitude of the delegates became clear at yesterday's opening session when Secretary of State George C. Marshall received unanimous assurance that the question of subversive activities could be put on the conference program.

Marshall's query came as a surprise. Observers had not expected the United States to bring up Communism at the parley, called to discuss inter-American affairs.

The American secretary did not mention Communism by name when he posed his question at a preliminary session prior to the formal opening of the Ninth International Conference of American States. There was no mistaking his meaning, however.

It could not be learned from American sources whether Marshall's move means the United States will provoke discussion of the Communist issue at the conference.

Observers cited reaction to the U. S. move as evidence that the issue of Communism is high in the minds of the delegates.

They also pointed out the fact that President Mariano Ospina Perez of Colombia and Joao Neves Fontoura, chief Brazilian delegate, — the only two speakers at the opening session — both dealt strongly with the threat of Communism to the western world.

Red Infiltration A Problem
Ospina Perez, who opened the conference, told delegates the Americas should be prepared to defend their spiritual and political independence in the face of every danger.

Fontoura said Communism "seems responsible for dragging mankind to a new catastrophe of unforeseeable consequences."

Chile, Paraguay and Cuba expressed the hope several weeks ago that the conference would take a stand against Communist infiltration in the Americas.

The Latin American nations have long viewed with apprehension inroads of Communism in Chile, Brazil and Cuba. Government leaders have condemned what they call Russian-inspired subversive activities in the western hemisphere, carried out by local Communist organizations under orders from Moscow.

HOUSE WOULD INCLUDE SPAIN IN AID PROGRAM

Washington, March 31 (AP)—The House voted 149 to 82 Tuesday to invite Franco Spain into the $6,206,000,000 foreign aid program.

The Foreign Affairs committee had agreed to include Spain. But Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), in charge of the aid bill, said the state department is against it.

And whether the Senate will go along is another question.

In any event, Spain could get in on the program only if she agreed like other participating countries to join in a European recovery program of cooperation and self help.

Must Agree To Terms

Spain now is specifically named as eligible to qualify under the bill before the House. Eastern European nations are not.

The door is open for Russia and her satellite nations to come in under the same terms as Spain, by agreeing to terms of the program.

Rep. Hand (R-NJ) immediately offered an amendment to limit the European program to the 16 nations which have signed up already to work together toward an economic comeback.

It would cancel out the section which now mentions Spain and would permit Russia and her satellites to come in if they agree to play ball.

Means Complications

Specific inclusion of Spain would have financial implications. The way the program is set up, the European program would be distributed among 16 nations.

Addition of Spain would require some research into Spanish needs and requirements. And that in turn could result either in increasing the total size of the European program or spreading the money among 17 instead of 16 countries.

Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), in charge of the aid bill, told a reporter the state department is against this step. "Probably it is bad politics in western Europe," he said. "But the way Spain would be written in would be rather innocuous, so we will go along."

HURL CHARGES AT FINN "RED"

Helsinki, March 31 (AP)—Rightists in Parliament and the Finnish press aimed a steady drumfire of criticism today at Finland's Communist interior minister. They voice the suspicion he has infiltrated the country's police force with Communists.

The interior minister, Yrjo Leino, is now in Moscow as a member of

Displaced Persons Murder Two Yanks

Munich, Germany, March 31 (AP)—Two displaced persons have confessed they slew two American soldiers because of jealousy over the affections of a gypsy girl, the Army U. S. Criminal Investigation Division announced Tuesday. Both the DP's were charged with murder.

D. A. Gallant, Munich chief of the CID, said a gypsy girl named Sonya is held as a material witness in the killing of Pvt. Robert D. Graves and Solomon D. Booker.

The bodies were found February 9 in a forest north of Munich.

Gallant quoted the two displaced persons as saying they and Sonya had sought out the soldiers and offered them large amounts of liquor as a gesture of friendship. Then, he said, the two men shot each of the soldiers in the back of their heads.

A seven-man Finnish delegation sent to negotiate a friendship and military pact with Russia. He must answer the charges before Parliament when he gets back. He is not expected to reply for several weeks.

There has been no announcement either here or in Moscow as yet concerning conclusion of the treaty, suggested by Prime Minister Stalin. Reliable sources said President Juho K. Paasikivi summoned the chairmen and vice chairmen of the six party blocs in Parliament to meet with him this afternoon. He took a similar step when Stalin's letter suggesting the pact arrived five weeks ago.

Informed sources say the president has the broad outline of what the Russians want, and is drawing up new instructions for the delegation in Moscow, aimed at meeting Russia's requests and still keep Finland outside big power conflicts.

EX - DISHWASHER BUYS A TOWN

Langleoth, Pa. March 31 (AP)—Gus Barbusch owns this community today and its 3,000 residents have every hope of avoiding the fate of a "ghost town."

Gus, an immigrant who got his start in the United States as a dish washer 36 years ago, bought the town yesterday for a reported several hundred thousand dollars.

A resident of nearby Burgettstown, Gus said he learned that things were looking pretty dark for Langleoth after the American Zinc and Chemical Co. decided to close its plant there.

The chemical plant, Langleoth's principal industry, had provided 800 jobs and a $9,000-a-day payroll. The company said the process in use had become obsolete and the plant wasn't worth rebuilding.

Gus—who through the years gradually acquired a store, restaurant and hotel building—went to the Burgettstown National bank and obtained a $200,000 loan, the largest it ever advanced to an individual.

Gus then bought the zinc company property, including 261 homes, community hall, church, school, sportsmen's clubhouse and park.

Now Gus has plans for finding a new industry to move into the empty plant. He also wants to build a baseball diamond for Langleoth and fix up that park.

"It could only happen in this country," Gus said with a smile. "My plan is to run a good town."

Expedition For New Peak Is Cancelled

Peiping, March 31 (AP)—Milton Reynolds today cancelled his expedition to find a mountain higher than Everest—less than half a minute after it started.

A takeoff mishap damaged his four-engine C-87 plane. Reynolds climbed out, looked it over, and said:

"The expedition is over. Captain Everest has won again."

No one was injured, but the minor damage to the plane would take weeks to repair, even if parts could be found here, he explained.

At Lanchow, the party's West China base, Dr. Richard Goldthwait of Ohio State university and Prof. Walter McKay of MIT said they must return to the United States within a few days. With them at Lanchow are Grant Ross of Boston university and three Chinese scientists.

Reynolds and the Boston Museum of Science sponsored the expedition. They had hoped to find, in West China's Amne Machin chain, an unscaled peak higher than Mt. Everest. Everest's height, greatest of record in the world, is variously listed as 29,102 or 29,141 feet.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ills. People, on the advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there regularly twice a year.

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wondrous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thionon in ancient Greece where, according to legend Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

Amazing Results

BIO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your elimination from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it. Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize the priceless value of BIO-MINERAL.

BIO-MINERAL is not a physic and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines, thoroughly relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. RED CROSS WILL

Cross film "Danger Is Your Companion" in which the high auto accident injury toll was stressed. First aid knowledge on the part of the general public was stressed as a means not only of reducing traffic, industrial and farm and home accidents but as an important step toward saving lives of accident victims.

Need Instructors There is a current shortage of qualified first aid instructors here. It was pointed out, but national Red Cross stands ready to send an instructor trainer here. Only one class is currently being conducted in first aid in the county, the board was told.

Early action on the blood donor program was promised by Mrs. H. Winebrenner, chapter chairman. She said an area representative will come here soon to confer with the chapter blood donor service committee to set up plans for inaugurating the service here along lines similar to those followed in wartime.

By unanimous action the board voted to continue to sponsor the mental health clinics in this county until another qualified sponsor is available. The clinics were revived here several years ago at the request of state officials and in response to a local need, Miss McMillan told the board.

Gives Junior Report Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, assistant secretary, reported on the work of the Junior Red Cross in the county. She said the interschool Junior council is promoting county projects and is now conducting a survey of possible projects for the next school year. The building of international understanding is being stressed by the Juniors, she said, with gifts to the National Children's Fund, the sending of hundreds of gift boxes, international school correspondence and the exchange of school art.

She concluded the Junior report by reading the board a letter of thanks for an Adams county gift package from a Latvian boy in the U. S. zone of Germany.

Mrs. Pennington also presented the report of Mrs. Bernice Staley, nutrition chairman, in which it was revealed that the school nutrition education program of the Adams county chapter has been described by Red Cross area officials as "the most advanced work in the elementary field in Pennsylvania."

Two Resignations The report on home nursing instruction classes being conducted under Red Cross sponsorship in county school centers was submitted by Mrs. Francis Mason and read by Mrs. Pennington.

An acute shortage of instructors is faced by the water safety chairman, Mrs. Lester O. Johnson, her report disclosed. A candidate is being sought to send to the National Red cross aquatic school in June to be trained as a county water safety instructor for the summer months.

The resignation of C. C. Culp as a member of the board of directors was read and Mrs. Winebrenner said the vacancy will be filled at the next board meeting. She also announced that Mrs. Earl Bowen has resigned as chairman of volunteer special services for the chapter.

The regular report of Harry L. Snyder, chapter treasurer, was read and Chairman Donald M. Swope presented a progress report on the finance drive. The meeting was held in the Methodist Sunday school room.

ship, pointed out that "We will probably join either a New Oxford or a Littlestown jointure and continue to send high school students to Hanover. At the present time New Oxford seems preferable and closer for us than Littlestown." Lepore also suggested that the McSherrystown board, which sends its students to Conewago township schools, be invited to take part in the discussions. The suggestion was unanimously adopted with New Oxford Principal Ivan Mechtly directed to contact the McSherrystown board.

Cite Advantages The advantages in forming a jointure were outlined by Superintendent Slaybaugh and Assistant County Superintendent Charles I. Raffensperger. Slaybaugh said: "We no longer drive a horse and buggy. We have adopted modern transportation and modern living, now we must bring our schools up to date. By working together in a joint board set-up the districts can eliminate expenses duplicating services and thus provide better education at lower cost. The one room school in the small district is the most expensive education there is."

Any agreement into which the boards may enter should be "worked out with plain horse sense," Assistant Superintendent Raffensperger said. "Effecting a jointure will not mean that the schools presently in operation will all be closed. To all practical purposes the only change at present will be to place the school systems under one head, and to provide less wasteful transportation. In due course, when prices are lower, elementary centers will probably be built at various locations in the joint district, but that is something to work toward in the future. The idea of the jointure is to provide the best possible education for all most efficiently. But it must be done by your board members as representatives of your patrons. There should be as little disturbance as possible of natural social areas. Those youngsters who go to Littlestown from Mt. Pleasant, for example, should continue to go to Littlestown. Conewago students who might go to Hanover should continue in Hanover schools."

Cites New Cost One thing pointed out by both Slaybaugh and Raffensperger was "do not deceive your patrons by stating that the jointure will operate at less cost than the school distributions are operating now. It will cost more than the cost this year to the districts—but it will cost less than the cost to the individual districts next year. For the mandatory salary increases to teachers will cause an increase in the cost of all school systems next year."

Prior to the meeting, at which New Oxford Principal Mechtly presided the New Oxford high school band and choruses presented a concert in the school auditorium.

NO JOBLESS PAY FOR IDLE SOFT COAL MINERS

Harrisburg, March 31 (AP)—The door was closed today in Pennsylvania to thousands of idle soft coal miners seeking unemployment compensation benefits.

A. J. Caruso, director of the state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, ruled yesterday that the present work stoppage is a "labor dispute" and accordingly bars the miners by law from receiving jobless pay.

He referred to a law passed by the 1947 Legislature, changing Pennsylvania's unemployment compensation act to prohibit strikers from obtaining benefits. The law formerly permitted persons idled in labor disputes to become eligible for compensation after a five-week penalty period.

Not All Ruled Out

Caruso's ruling, however, does not bar all idle soft coal miners from benefits. Only those are disqualified who work at mines unionized by the United Mine Workers of America.

"The bureau is of the opinion," Caruso declared, "that a labor dispute exists between the United Mine Workers of America and the various operating companies of the bituminous industry in Pennsylvania."

"This means," he said, "that all members of the various participating local unions of the UMW are ruled to be directly interested in the labor dispute and therefore are disqualified."

Caruso emphasized at the same time however that mine workers at non-union mines, who have been laid off, are eligible for benefits if they are not involved in "positive sympathetic action" in the mine stoppage. The mine shutdown began March 15 after John L. Lewis announced local union operators had failed to agree on a welfare and pension plan.

The Washington Post, commenting on this editorially said the McMahon pieces came as a "shock."

Checks Atomic Progress

McMahon is a member of the Senate-Atomic Energy Commission, headed by Lillenthal, which bosses the whole atomic energy program.

Through his committee Congress keeps a check on what is being done about the development of atomic energy in the United States. Which means:

The committee is in close touch with the Atomic Energy Commission, headed by Lillenthal, which bosses the whole atomic energy program.

The Post, indignant at McMahon for his piece in Colliers, says Lill-

Known To Scientists
McMahon, asked today if he had any comment on the Post editorial, said:

"Mr. Bernard Baruch two years ago said 'we are all engaged in a race between the quick and the dead.'"

"There is nothing which my article revealed which is not known to every nuclear scientist in the world worth his salt."

"That the reason why the scientists in this country and elsewhere desperately want effective international control of atomic energy."

"Unless the truth is brought home to the peoples of the world, atomic energy may well spell destruction for mankind."

Those two items of information—Keefe's and McMahon's—came at time when this country is getting tough with Russia.

If President Truman's call to build up our armed forces was intended to jolt Russia's nerves, the latest information may give them another jolt.
